Bro. Peter, president St. Stanisaus College, and new president Bay Rotary Club, assumed his seat Wednesday following his return from a trip to the Mid-West and far Pacific coast which extended over a period of a month.

Bro. Peter was the speaker of the meeting and told of the International Rotary Convention, held at Chicago, to which he was the official delegate, and said how imbued he was as a result of his attendance and participation with the spirit of ,,Rotary. He told of the many virtues of Rotary and that at its best and as a whole Rotary was applied friendship He dwelt on this term to the edification and advantage of his hearers, all Rotarians. It was to be regretted, he said, that, while there were some tweny-six thousand Rotarians at this week's get together, that every Rotarian could not be present.

Concluding his address, and seated, he was called upon to speak on the trip that followed the one to Chicago. He said his visit to the famed Califormia had resolved to this; that he could better appreciate the more equable climate of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. There, in California, he said, every inch of soil had to be irrigated, and while we were indebted to that country for its fruit and At 4 o'clock Thursday morning other products, the Mississippi Gulf Coast was the ideal all the yearround place to live. #### THE WRONG WOMAN.

At the request of the sheriff of Hinds County an effort was made by the Harrison county sheriff to arrest a well-known and popular club woman of Gulfport last week on the bare suspician that she was Belle Gunness, notorious 22 years ago as proprietress of a so-called "murder farm" at Laporte, Indiana, where the bodies of fifteen of her alleged husbands were exhumed in a private gradeyard. It was a case of mistaken identity, but it seems to us that the Gulfport woman has grounds for a damage suit against the Hinds county sheriff who was imposed upon by a man whom he did not know, had never before seen and whose responsibility he did not take the trouble to inquire into. If the humiliation and notoriety caused by the sheriff's action can be redressed, she certainly deserves a verdict for whatever amount a jury may award her.

TAMPERING WITH THE CONSTITUTION

It is to the credit of the Lutheran ministry that that great religious body has not joined most of the other Protestant clergy in endorsing the Eighteenth Amendment.

The position taken by the Lutheran clergy is commendable and shows what harm is bound to follow by "tampering with the United States Constitution for the purpose of regulating personal conduct places the constitution in jeopardy."

President E. J. Galtmeyer of the Walther League, Lutheran church society which met in convention at Cleveland, Ohio, last week, addressing the league members had the following to say:

"Millions of our citizens be lieve that our constitution should not be tampered with but should be left as a fundamental guide. The great majority of our Lutheran group hold to this view for two important reasons.

"In the first place, because of the great prosperity which our country had enjoyed under our God-favored constitution. Learned economists, hold that our progress and weather are directly traceable to our financial law, for it made possible inindividual development: Then having produced these, it should not be tampered with by propagandists.

'Secondly, we hold that our religious freedom, our greatest boon under the constitution, is placed in jeopardy when this fundamental instrument is used as a statute for regulatory laws.

"I am talking about tampering with the constitution for the purpose of regulating personal conduct. If well-meaning and sincere people can tell us what to eat and to drink, what assurance have we that they will not very shortly tell us how, when and where we shall worship? Is this complete separation when religious bodies force upon the country their particular religious views and, using the arm of the state, compel millions of people who do not hold these same views to conform to their viewpoints. I thank God that our ministry has not permitted itself to be paid to run the politics of the country but rather that they have a cofined their work to being true shepherds of the flock, following the footsteps

FOOLISH FRANCHISES TO SPEND $340,000 ON IMPROVEMENTS

Extensive interior improvements will be made in the Roosevelt Hotel, New Orleans, with an expenditure of $340,000, according to announcement made by Frank J. Dean, vice-president of the United Hotels of the South and West, Inc., owners of the Roosevelt, and Evanklin D. Moore, manager of the hotel in New Orleans. The work will consist principally f repainting, redecorating and panlling the rooms. In addition corridors will be done over and 247 new bathrooms installed. A new "Tip Top Inn" will be established upon the roof to replace the present dining room and convention hall there and the "Venetian Room, or main dining room, will be entirely remodeled and refurnished. The work will involve the laying of 16,000 yards of carpet

Part of the improvements have already been completed or are now under way. The bulk of the work, however, will be completed within the next three months.

Died Suddenly at Hotel in St. Petersburg, Florida-Funeral at Bay St. Louis

Mrs. Lillie Willis, widow of Charles Marshall, former superintendent local division Louisville & Nashville R. R., residing in Bay St. Louis, died at a hotel in St. Peterburg, Florida, Saturday morning of a heart attack.

Mrs. Marshall, since her husband's death had been spending the winters in Florida and was engaged in active preparation of returning home to Bay St. Louis when she was suddenly taken ill and passed away. Her re-turn was eagerly anticipated by her loved ones residing here when the sad message came she had passed

The remains reached this city Mon-day morning and were taken to the residence of Mr and Mrs. Donald Marshall, a son and daughter-in-law of the deceased, and funeral cere-mony was held that afternoon with interment in Cedar Rest Cemetery along side her husband.

Mrs. Marshall was a native of Clarksville, Tennessee, and was aged 76 years. She had been a resident of Bay St. Louis for the past forty years and was known and beloved by all who knew her. Those who knew her best, it may well be said, loved her best. She was a woman of fine attributes, of kindly attitude and her many endearing qualities won for her a lasting place in the hearts of her friends.

The funeral of Mrs. Marshall was one of the largest ever seen here, and with the many floral offerings here was testimony of the love and affection in which she was held by the people of the community in which not only had she dwelled so long but loved so well. With her husband, the late Col. Marshall, she made her home here as a matter of choice, leaving New Orleans where the business headquarters of the L. & N.'s divisional business interests were lo
